About the Library

The Library was established in 1999 primarily for the use of local preachers, ministers and worship leaders in the Leeds (North East) Circuit. Others who wish to borrow, including preachers from other circuits in the Leeds District, may do so. Members of the congregations of the circuit are also welcome to use the library. Borrowers are asked to be considerate of others in the number of books they take and the time for which they retain them.

The collection is housed in the Circuit Office at Lidgett Park Methodist Church, which is open:

- Monday, Tuesday, Thursday 8.00 am - 4.00 pm
- before and after worship on Sunday mornings
- and at other times on request when a church steward is present.

Books may be borrowed and returned by post provided the borrower pays the postage costs.

New borrowers:

If you are not a minister, local preacher or worship leader in the Leeds (North East) Circuit, please fill in a registration slip. You will find these in the tin on top of the cupboard.

Each book contains a record card.

To borrow books:

- Please write your name (legibly!) and the date on the record card.
- Leave the card in the red tin.

To return books:

- Please retrieve the record card.
- Write the return date on it.
- Put the card back in the book.
- Return the book to its proper place on the shelf. (The books are in classified order as in this list.)
