

Christmas carolling!

As part of the planned circuit Christmas services we are hoping to use a number of carols with singers from across the circuit taking part.

This link will give you access to the backing tracks and music for the six carols we are going to try and do in this way.

Each of the included folders contains a Pdf of the sheet music as well as four audio files. These include the Melody line (soprano) the alto part, the tenor part as well as a bass part.

If you are unsure which voice part you are, or just want to have a sing, then use the melody line.

In order to record your video, you will need to:

- Listen through to the selected part, to make sure you know when to come in.
- Please record landscape (phone or tablet on its side)
 - You can also record using a laptop if you prefer – but please try to set it up so the camera is at eyelevel.
- Please sing with earphones/headphones and listen to the audio track for your voice part while recording. (you might need to use a separate device to do this)
- Please leave 5 seconds before and after singing, to help with editing
- Once you have recorded your video you can send it to me using Wetransfer or another file sharing system.
- Please get all recordings to me by 12th December so we have plenty of time to get the videos finalised before Christmas.

Please send all recorded files to pcolemanleedsnande@gmail.com and feel free to get in touch if you have any questions or need any assistance recording.

the most important part of this is to have some fun – so while it may be a bit early why not break out the Christmas jumpers, hats, or even some tinsel.

Acts of Sunday Worship on the Media

November 22nd - Radio Leeds - 8:00 a.m. for 30 minutes.

November 22nd - BBC Radio 4 - 8:10 a.m. for 38 minutes - Liberation in Lockdown.

With our lives impacted by the rules of lockdown, many struggle to find contentment. With tight restrictions prescribed for university students particularly, how are they finding some semblance of normal life?

This live service from Holy Trinity, Platt in Manchester explores these issues through the lens of faith. The church lies on the doorstep of the student village, usually a bustling hub of activity, but now the students are isolated in their halls of residence. Recently tensions flared up as temporary fences were erected and subsequently pulled down by students protesting the move.

The Rector, the Revd Dr Paul Mathole and the Youth and Children's Minister, Sarah Bradley, reflect on their ministry to students as they face rules and restrictions. They explore the hopes and fears felt by those who are looking for solace in these testing times. They reflect on what it means to be content throughout good times and bad as students from the congregation describe the sense of gaining freedom through faith.

Music is performed by socially distanced musicians from the church

Advent at Home

We all know that Advent and Christmas will be very different this year, and so, in the season of waiting and preparing, the circuit are offering different ways of journeying through Advent together.

First, the Circuit are producing an Advent booklet, with daily advent reflections and activities, written by the Local preachers, worship leaders and staff. This will be available to every household in time for the beginning of Advent. Obviously, there will be a cost to these being produced, and we want this to be a gift, but if there are those wishing to contribute to the circuit cost that would be very welcome.

Secondly, you may like to join us in going deeper into our domestic journey of Advent to Epiphany at Home. You will need to buy the book 'At Home in Advent' by Gordon Giles, but all good bookshops and online stockists will sell this, it is priced at £8.99. The reading of these daily reflections will be accompanied by zoom bible study groups, WhatsApp chats, comments on Instagram and hopefully there will be those willing to partner with others to have conversation over the phone. Let's journey together in Advent across Leeds North and East in our time of waiting and preparing.

Spare desk free to a good home

At Chapel Allerton we have one spare desk looking for a good home. It's a basic 60 x 120cm MDF veneered single pedestal desk (see photo). We can arrange to deliver it. If you are interested please contact David Cundall on 07989 194 726

The next edition of the Noticeboard will be on Sunday November 29th. Please ensure any items/changes are to John by the previous Wednesday. Thank you.
